Dear Mr. Ambassador:

Admiral Turner has asked that I express his pleasure that you have accepted his invitation to be CIA Guest Speaker on 13 June and that I confirm our willingness to change the time of the lecture to 2:30 p.m.

As the Director mentioned in his letter to you of 7 April, the typical Guest Speaker format is a lecture of approximately 45 minutes, followed by a 30-minute question period. We would plan to end the program no later than 3:45 p.m., so that you should have ample time to catch the 5:00 p.m. shuttle from National Airport to La Guardia.

The Director plans to introduce you and would enjoy having an opportunity to meet with you for a few minutes in advance of the lecture. Would it be possible for you to arrive at our Langley, Virginia, headquarters by 2:10 p.m.? We will be happy to send a car to the airport for you or pick you up at your hotel and, after the lecture, take you to the airport.

As I mentioned by telephone, it will be helpful to have a biography and photograph of you, for internal publicity purposes; and we are required to have your Social Security number to process the honorarium and transportation costs. A check for the latter will await you here.

Thank you for agreeing to be videotaped. Our Guest Speaker Program, which is held six times a year, is a very popular one, and those unable to attend enjoy viewing the presentation by videotape at a later date. We also use our videotaped Guest Speaker presentations in training courses.

We are pleased that the suggested topic, "Cultural Sources of Japanese Power," appeals to you and look forward to your discussion of it.
